ANNUAL MEMORIAL FOR LOST FISHERMEN TO BE HELD AUGUST 11

The annual tribute to the fishermen lost at sea will be held Sunday, August 11, at 5.30 p. m. Five fishermen have been lost since January and at the fishermen's memorial service a personal tribute will be paid to each of these men in the form of a bouquet of flowers cast upon the waves by a Girl Scout.

After this part of the ceremony the assembled throng will pay tribute "to all the seamen who through all the years have found a last resting place in the 'waters that wash every shore' by casting flowers on the flowing tide. In addition to the usual flower ceremony a dory carried by the swiftly moving tide will pass through the canal to the open harbor. From the stern of the dory a young lady will scatter flowers upon the water, giving an added touch of beauty to the ceremony.

Will Deliver Address.

Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, congressman, will give the address. Mrs. Rogers is an effective speaker and will Brought 210 Fish.

Sch. Vasco da Gama, at Boston on Saturday, should have been credited with 210 swordfish instead of 110 fish.

Swordfish at Portland.

All swordfish records in Portland were broken when 1114 fish were sold from eight schooners, Saturday. The Richard J. Nunan was high with 188, nine more than the Alice M. Doughty. Each man in the Nunan's crew stocked almost $400.

BOSTON LANDINGS TOOK BIG JUMP

BLINK MACKEREL SWAMP DEALERS

NEARLY 600,000 PONDS OF SMALL
FISH LANDED DURING NIGHT.

Local dealers found themselves fairly swamped with blink mackerel this morning. Last night and today nearly 600,000 pounds of small fish were brought to port. Some of the boats took out their trips during the early morning hours, while others waited to see what the market would offer. The fish are small and go about four to a pound. Freezers and canners took the bulk of the arrivals, although some fish found their way to outside markets by rail. Fresh fish receipts consisted of the off-shore dragger Leonora C., and the shore trawl victoria.
